YOUTH FREED BY KIDNAPERS; HELD 7 DAYS

St Paul Manufacturer's Son Unharmed, Police Are Silent on Release.

THREE HELD AS HOAXERS

Haskell Bohn Held Prisoner in Cellar with Eyes Taped Five in Gang

By The Associated Press

ST PAUL, July 7—Tired and unshaven but otherwise unharmed Haskell Bohn St Paul youth was back home today with a story of having been held captive by several men for nearly a week.

Whether any money had been paid for his release as demanded in a note left at the home last Thursday when Bohn was seized by two men and thrown into an automobile was not revealed. The writers had asked $35 000.

Haskell Bohn

Three men alleged to have attempted to extort $10 000 from G C Bohn young Bohn's father were being held by police.

Bohn walked into a farm house at Medicine Lake near Minneapolis late last night and said his captors had just freed him. The sheriff's office at Minneapolis was notified and two officers brought Bohn to town.

Taped Eyes

Questioned by police there Bohn said he was at the family garage a week ago today when the men seized him at the point of guns.

They took off my glasses and wound tape over my eyes said the youth whose father is a manufacturer here. They drove for an hour and stopped at what apparently was a garage. After about three hours one man walked me for about 200 feet. He took me into a house and down some steps into a basement I think.

He said he was kept there until an hour before his release. He thought there were four or five men in the gang. He was well fed and had plenty of cigarets to smoke but the tape was kept over his eyes all the time.

After young Bohn's return police revealed that three men who allegedly had attempted to extort $10 000 from the elder Bohn had been arrested Tuesday and that they face charges of attempting to perpetrate a hoax.

Trio Confesses

Chief Thomas Dahill said the men had confessed they had promised to return Haskell Bohn if the money was forthcoming. They gave directions where to leave the money. A fake package prepared and taken to the designated spot led to their arrest.

They gave their names as Harold Wilder 28 alleged leader in the attempted extortion Louis Bartol 30 and John O Connor 29. Whether they had any connection with the actual disappearance of Bohn was not announced by police.

NEW STORY TOLD IN REYNOLDS KILLING

Collapse of Tobacco Heir's Widow Halts Questioning by Officials

By The Associated Press

WINSTON SALEM N C July 7—The Twin City Sentinel says today it learns from high authorities that Smith Reynolds and his bride the former Libby Holman Broadway revue star were lying across a bed together when the heir to the Reynolds tobacco millions was fatally shot early yesterday.

The Sentinel says this statement was made to investigating officers by Mrs Reynolds before she collapsed upon learning of her young husband's death.

First reports had said Mrs Reynolds was in a nearby bedroom at the time of the shooting.

Ab Walker a friend of Reynolds who was spending the night in the house said he was on the first floor closing windows when he heard a shot, followed by Mrs. Reynolds' scream.

He said he dashed upstairs to find Reynolds alone on a sleeping porch, with a revolver nearby.

The Sentinel says officers have been unable to question Mrs. Reynolds since her collapse.

Seven Saved as Craft Dives To Bottom

TRIAL CRUISE

By The Associated Press

CHERBOURG France July 7—The French submarine Promethee with a crew of 56 and 17 others aboard sank off Cherbourg harbor today.

Seven men were saved.

In addition to the crew the ship was carrying 17 engineers and other workers not permanently assigned to the vessel.

The ministry of marine issued this statement describing the disaster.

The Promethee was making a trial trip on the surface. Suddenly she sank in a depth of about 25 fathoms 7 miles north of Cape Levi. The cause of the accident was not determined.

The marine police of Cherbourg sent out all the available salvage vessels and Admiral Maloway took over direction of the operations. Naval planes were brought into service but flying conditions were bad making a search from the air difficult.

The Promethee is one of a class of 1 384 tons surface displacement. She is 295 feet long with a 30 foot beam. Her armament consists of one 3 9-inch gun one 37 millimeter gun one machine gun eleven 21-inch torpedo tubes including two sets of revolving tubes one fore and one aft.

The type was not particularly successful on trials. Two of the Promethee's sister ships Vengeur and Redoubtable made a cruise to the West Indies in 1930 without a mishap.

Promethee was one of five submarines in the 1927 building program.

The sinking of the Promethee was the second major submarine disaster in French naval history.

The first occurred Oct 3 1928 when the French submarine Ondine was in a collision with a Greek steamer off Portugal. Forty three lives were lost in this crash.

Marion To Pay $80 a Day for Postage Boost

THE increased postal rates effective this week will cost patrons of the Marion postoffice approximately $80 a day more than the old rates postoffice officials estimated today.

Of this amount, approximately $65 will result from the boost from two to three cents of the rate for first class mail. The remaining $15 will be collected in increased rates for registered insured C O D and air mail.

A majority of first class mail deposited in the local office yesterday carried the necessary three cents postage Postmaster French Crow said. All but approximately 200 letters were properly posted. These will be forwarded and the extra penny will be collected from the person receiving them.

Stamp sales swung sharply upward yesterday as Marion residents purchased 10 000 three-cent stamps and approximately 10 000 one-cent stamps to add to their present supply of two-cent stamps to meet the new rates.

This office's requisition for 400 000 of the new violet colored Washington stamps has not been received but the supply of three cent stamps on hand will be sufficient to meet the need until they arrive later this week postoffice officials said. Thirty five thousand stamped envelopes of the three cent design were placed on sale yesterday.

CITY HIT BY SEVERE WIND, RAIN STORM

Limbs of Trees Block Streets as Heavy Wind Strikes Hail Does Damage

WATER STALLS AUTOS

Precipitation in 20 Minutes Measures 1 65 Inches; Phone Lines Down

A hail storm progressing from western Ohio where it did considerable damage struck Marion today at 12 15 p m at the height of a torrential rainstorm and high winds. Associated Press reports indicated the storm was general over northern and western Ohio.

Nearly two inches of rain fell during the approximately 20 minutes the storm raged. The measurement at the local weather station was 1 65 inches nearly equal to the heaviest rainstorms of the season that have lasted throughout a day.

The hailstorm peppered down for approximately 15 minutes. Corn oats and gardens suffered considerable damage. Part of the city fire alarm system was disrupted during the storm.

Damage to telephone equipment caused by falling trees and branches disconnected telephones in between 200 and 300 Marion residences telephone company officials said after a preliminary checkup.

In parts of the east section of the city motorists were forced by fallen trees and branches to take roundabout routes.

Telephone lines connecting this city with Green Camp Morral and Waldo were put out of service temporarily.

An early check of the damage showed that the high winds during the early few minutes of the storm caused the heaviest damage.

Streets Blocked by Limbs

On many streets traffic was blocked by huge limbs blown from trees and the damage by falling limbs was especially heavy in the vicinity of the postoffice.

The heavy downpour of rain stopped many automobiles in the middle of the street and in the few minutes that the storm was at its worst the water in the gutters was running level with the curbs.

The storm was forecast in today's weather report from the state weather bureau.

A sunshiny morning found persons uptown unprepared to cope with the rain and taxi companies were rushed the noon hour.

Although hail fell in Marion and in part of the western section of the county a checkup disclosed that no serious damage had been done to crops or gardens. Reports from various parts of the county indicated that the storm and hail had been most intensive in the city.

Trees Blown Down

A large cherry tree was uprooted in the back yard of the residence of Mrs A F Cheney on Mt Vernon avenue. A tree was blown over at the residence of Mrs D I Javiee at 529 Mt Vernon avenue smashing a part of the porch and breaking a front window. Another tree was down at the Henry True residence opposite the postoffice.

Considerable damage was caused by the hail storms and heavy rain at Van Wert O., this morning according to an Associated Press news dispatch. The hail stones stripped trees of their foliage and damaged growing crops in the surrounding countryside.

The annual interlake regatta at Put in Bay was thrown into confusion today by a severe thunderstorm and a series of squalls an Associated Press story stated. Several small boats capsized but there were no fatalities.

QUICK ACTION ON BEER BILL SOUGHT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 7—A petition to Speaker Garner urging immediate action on beer-for-revenue legislation was circulated today among Republican anti-prohibitionists.

The petition was agreed upon yesterday at a meeting of the Republican wet bloc.

Its drafting was completed today by Representative LaGuardia of New York and it immediately was passed from hand to hand by the Republican group.

There was no plan to seek Democratic signers.

LaGuardia predicted many signatures would be obtained from the Republican side.

Woman's Hospital Board Plans Annual Garden Party to Raise Funds To Continue Venture for Undernourished Youngsters

HEALTHY babies make happy mothers and add immeasurably to the welfare of the community is the belief of the Woman's Hospital board which for the last several months has been centering its efforts on the baby clinic the newest addition to the Marion city clinic located in the city hospital.

With the carrying on of this project as a goal the members of the board are working untiringly to make their third annual garden party Tuesday of next week an outstanding success. Proceeds of the garden party which will be held this year at White Oaks farm the home of Mrs Carl W Sawyer will be used to finance the baby clinic.

Established late in November of last year the baby clinic has grown until it has become almost an institution in itself and one which has enlisted the interest and aid of doctors nurses and members of the women's board. That it has won the gratitude of more than 60 mothers who have seen their babies well on the road to health and happiness goes without the telling.

Babies registered at the baby clinic are examined and treated free of charge and the board also provides the proper food and nourishment as long as is deemed necessary by the doctors and nurses in charge. The object of the baby clinic is the care of undernourished babies ranging in ages from a few months to three years.

2 Men Thumb Way to Jail at Mt. Gilead

(Special to The Star)

MT GILEAD July 7 — The economy demands made by overburdened taxpayers have been partially answered by the marshal of the federal district with headquarters at Columbus. Wednesday morning he was faced with the problem of providing transportation for two violators of the prohibition law from Columbus to Mt Gilead.

To save money he turned the two prisoners loose with instructions to get to the county jail here as quickly as possible on their own resources. As they were without funds the two men Herbert Andrews of Marion and Roy Patterson of Circleville decided to hitch hike the 50-mile distance. They reached Mt Gilead and sheriff's officers having been picked up by motorists who were greatly amused when they were informed that they had taken over a part of the federal government's job.

Both men reported to Sheriff Charles E Miller here as soon as they reached Mt Gilead and were locked in cells to serve their 30-day sentences.

Fourteen other prohibition law violators—13 men and one woman are also lodged in the jail here to serve sentences ranging from 30 days to three months. Patterson and Andrews were sentenced the same day the others were but obtained a stay of execution over the July 4 holiday.

FLIERS LONG OVERDUE ON MOSCOW HOP

Anxiety Increases for Mattern-Griffin as Inquiries Prove Futile

FUEL DEADLINE PASSED

Airmen May Have Landed Along Route Where Communication Impossible

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW July 7 James Mattern and Bennett Griffin missing between Berlin and Moscow on their round-the-world flight were unreported at noon (Marion time) today.

If they were still in the air at that time they had to come down wherever they were for that was the time beyond which the fuel they took aboard at Berlin would be exhausted.

They had full tanks when they took off from Berlin at 3 p m (Marion time) yesterday. That was approximately 600 gallons enough to keep them in the air 21 hours.

Early this morning when the normal flying time between the two points a distance of 800 miles, had elapsed officials at the government airport here sent out inquiries to all the main points along the route which the fliers were to have followed. The effort was unproductive.

At the airport mechanics and others remained on the job all night and all day but anxiety was increasing.

The Kazan airport about three hours flying time east of Moscow was one of the points which reported no sign of the Century of Progress. Kazan is on the way to Omsk.

There was a possibility that the Century of Progress might have come down between Berlin and Moscow. The terrain in that area is not too rough for a successful emergency landing but it is not thickly settled and communication would not be easy.

On the other hand it was possible that Mattern and Griffin passed over Moscow in the night and drove on east toward Omsk 1400 miles further along their route.

No Fuel at Moscow

They had no fuel depot at Moscow because the quality obtainable there was not satisfactory. There is however a supply awaiting them at Omsk.

Both fliers have had some experience in navigation and since they studied their projected course very carefully before leaving New York it seemed likely that if there were no difficulties of weather or trouble with the plane they would be able to find their way to Omsk handily.

At 140 miles an hour the approximate speed they made from Harbor Grace to Berlin they would reach Omsk sometime in the forenoon today assuming they were still in the air.

Communication with Omsk is not of the best and if they should land there some delay would be probable in getting word of their arrival to the world.

The only word of them was a belated dispatch from Koenigsberg this morning which said they had crossed the German frontier into Poland at 12 05 a m., (6 05 p m.).

HOUSE ACTS TO PAY VETERANS' WAY HOME

$100,000 Fund, To Be Returned, Approved To Send Men from Capital.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON July 7—Responding to a request by President Hoover, the house appropriations committee today approved a $100,000 fund for transporting the army of bonus-seeking war veterans back to their homes.

This action came as police intervened to prevent what appeared to be imminent trouble at the bonus marchers' camp at Anacostia. A threatened disturbance quickly subsided when police stepped in.

The legislation to take the former service men away from Washington will be reported at once by Chairman Byrns to the house for action after disposition of the relief bill. The senate has already passed a bill to authorize loans to the veterans for their return home.

The $100,000 would be spent to provide railroad transportation and subsistence at the rate of [illegible] cents a day for each honorably discharged war veteran encamped here. Advances [illegible] would be deducted from the face value of the bonus certificates.

No. 2 Loop Leaders Hold Places with Shutout Victories

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK

Just an Idea

Casting around for possible ideas to make softball even more popular in Marion than it already is I have hit on an idea not original which may or may not gain approval of the players and the fans. Probably it won't, at least with teams which are habitual winners.

The idea briefly stated is to adopt the split season plan of competition. This would in reality make two complete and separate seasons in a summer. This plan has been worked out in a satisfactory manner in many other cities in both amateur and professional competition and might work very well here.

I have no particular reason for making such a suggestion. It is merely the product of a temporary and infrequent brain storm. However it does appear that such a plan has its merits. It would necessitate some changes in eligibility rules in some cases but if worked out would provide evener competition all through the season.

The plan would be worked out on such a basis that teams which go through the first half of the season with a poor record would be enabled to gain added strength for the second round battle. It would take some work to figure all this out and but once it was done the plan would be no more difficult to manage than the present system. It's an idea anyhow, not for this season of course, but for future years.

The Prize Rookies

Each season there are a number of rookie softball players who step into the shoes of passing veterans of the game in Marion. Some of the youngsters make good with a bang in the first year. Others (most of them) don't. The going is too tough. Who are the prize rookies this season?

The choice of this correspondent at this time would be Jack Ling, the giant pitcher and first baseman of the Epworth Bishops and Masonic lodge teams, Maury Whitcum and Billie Hero of the Epworth Seniors and Masonic lodge teams. There are others who look good but few who show the promise these boys do. None of the three are the best in town yet but all look like good bets to become stars within a few seasons. None are through high school yet. Hero is a second baseman and Whitcum does his best playing in the outfield. There's an argument for you. Pick three better ones.

CHRISTIAN SENIORS DOWN FOREST LAWN

Reformed Bows to Epworth; Both Scores 6-0, Christian No. 1, Wesley M E Also on Top.

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK
Sports Editor, The Star

The race for the No 2 Sunday school softball league pennant is not over by any means but at present there are two teams which seem almost certain to fight it out for possession of the gonfalon this season. They are the Christian Seniors and Epworth Seniors. Both teams are tearing along at a breakneck pace, bowling over opponents in rapid fire order. The Christian nine holds the percentage edge in the race now by virtue of having played one more game than the Methodists.

The latest victims of these two championship aspirants are Forest Lawn Presbyterians and First Reformed. The Christians beat the former team and the Methodists won from the Reformed nine yesterday, both by the same score 6-0. In the other two games Christian No 1 slammed out a 6-3 victory over the United Brethren and Wesley improved its percentage by taking St Paul's Lutherans into camp, 7-3.

Christians Hit

Johnny Vestal, youthful right hander of the Forest Lawn aggregation, was the chief victim of the Christian Seniors assault yesterday. Vestal did the flinging for five innings and then gave way to Stutt Kellogg. Vestal was reached for five of the six tallies while Kellogg yielded one. The Christians collected eight hits off the two pitchers which with the aid of a couple misplays sent them home with a decisive victory. Art Amick allowed the losers but four hits, never more than one in an inning.

Bryant Corwin set First Reformed down with only two hits while his mates were pounding Dale Schwaderer for seven and making them count for six markers. Loose fielding on the part of Reformed was a big help to the Epworth cause. Ballenger slammed a four base wallop to help the Methodists along in the fourth frame. The Seniors bunched their seven hits effectively, getting three in each of the fourth and sixth innings.

Efforts Wasted

Despite the fact that Dutch Zuspan struck out eight batters and gave up only five hits the United Brethren were unable to stop the Christian No 1 nine and were beaten by a 6-3 score. Roscoe Rank was even stingier with his hits than Zuspan, allowing only four men to reach first base by this means. Connell, a recent shortstop addition to the Christian team, did the major stickwork for the winners, slamming out a triple and single to account for enough runs to have won the game. Marion Vanleib poled out a homer for the U B in the seventh with one aboard.

No account was turned in on the St Paul-Wesley game.

EQUIPOISE OUT TO SET MONEY RECORD

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO July 7—Equipoise, C V Whitney's great handicap star, is going after Sun Beau's record as the greatest money winner of turf.

Fred Hopkins, trainer for the fleet four-year-old, today said it was planned to enter the thoroughbred in at least nine of the richest stake events of the year. His earnings already have passed $200,000 and a victory in but a few of them would send him past his goal, $376,744.

Equipoise's first objective will be the Arlington cup Saturday. He will remain over for the Arlington handicap on July 23 and then go to Saratoga for the Saratoga handicap and the Saratoga cup races. After that he may be shipped back to Chicago to try for the Hawthorne cup.

Lee Street Wins, 5-3.

Lee Street Presbyterians accounted for another victory yesterday in the Intermediate softball league by taking a 5-3 victory from Pleasant Trinity Lutheran. Other scores in the league follow: St Mary 7, Calvary 4; Kite Memorial 9, Presbyterian 0 and Epworth 2, Northern Stars 0.

ROOKIES IN SPOTLIGHT OF TORRID RACE FOR FLAG IN NATIONAL

Leaders Owe Success to Recruits, Pirates Tighten Grip on First Place

By The Associated Press

The present National league race might well be termed the race of the rookies.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, leading by three and a half games, could trace their success directly to the pitching of Steve Swetonic and Bill Swift, who between them had won 16 games, and to the fine play of Tony Piet and Floyd Vaughan.

The second place Chicago Cubs probably would be further down but for the sensational hurling of Lonnie Warneke and the play of Bill Herman at second base. Huck Betts and Bobby Brown have by their consistently great pitching kept the Boston Braves close to the top ever since the race began.

FLOYD VAUGHAN

Swetonic scored his ninth victory yesterday, beating the Giants in the first half of a double header 4 to 2. Larry French stopped the New Yorkers 5 to 1 in the nightcap.

Warneke rang up his eleventh triumph, halting the Phillies 6 to 1. The Braves lost to St Louis 4 to 2.

Cincinnati and Brooklyn battled all afternoon without getting anywhere. The Reds took the first game 6 to 4 but the Dodgers won the second 7 to 2. Chick Hafey, who has been out of the Cincinnati line-up with illness for many weeks, appeared as a pinch hitter in the last inning of the nightcap but failed to connect safely.

Only one game survived an epidemic of rain in the American league. In that the Boston Red Sox came from behind a 4-0 disadvantage at the end of the fourth to beat out St Louis 5 to 4.

SEES STIFF BATTLE FOR YANKEE TEAM

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES July 7—William M Henry, sports technical director for the 1932 Olympic games, predicts United States athletes may bow to any number of foreign stars, some of them virtual unknowns in international competition.

He also ventures the opinion all existing records may topple during the two weeks contests, which he says has attracted a far better field than ever before.

Reduction of the entry list for each event from four to three, reducing the number of preliminary heats, a fast seasoned track and better weather conditions will aid the athletes, said Henry.

HORSE, DOG RACING GAINS POPULARITY

By The Associated Press

TALLAHASSEE, Fla, July 7—The horses and dogs will get a run for their money in Florida next winter if all applications to the state racing commission develop into the operation of race tracks.

As against three horse race tracks and six dog tracks operated last winter, the racing commission today considered applications for permits to operate nine of the former and 21 of the latter during the coming season, January 1 to April 1.

NO BROADCASTS?

Radio Companies Issue Threat Following Boxing Board Edict

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK July 7—There may never be another coast-to-coast broadcast of a championship fight here if the state athletic commission enforces its edict barring professional announcers from the microphone.

Rather than submit to the commission's ruling that none but boxing experts shall be privileged to broadcast future bouts, the National and Columbia broadcasting companies have threatened to take the ring battles off the air.

The commission, as a result of the flare-up following the description of the Sharkey-Schmeling bout by Graham McNamee and Charles Francis Coe, announced that in future the mikes must be manned by none but boxing sports writers, judges or referees.

Nothing Missing Here.

By The Associated Press

KANSAS CITY, Mo, July 7—The cynics who feared that night baseball might rob the national pastime of its color and thrills have been routed. Indianapolis defeated Kansas City here last night 3 to 0, thus inaugurating the nocturnal play. And—Mrs F P [illegible], one of the 10,000 fans in attendance, was slightly injured when struck by a flying pop bottle intended for an umpire.

The Country club will play its next match at Galion next Wednesday.

VACATIONS DELAY SOFTBALL MEETING

Because vacation periods prevented several members of the board from being present the regular monthly meeting of the Marion recreation ball commission scheduled last night was postponed. Vice President William Fabian, acting in the absence of President Norris Crissinger, has called a special meeting for Tuesday, July 12 at 8 p m.

Several matters of importance are to be brought before the commission at that time, Fabian said today in urging all members of the board to be on hand.

ASPIRANTS IN FINAL TRIALS FOR POSTS ON OLYMPIC MAT TEAM

Columbus Scene of Competition for Right To Represent U S at Games.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, July 7—A group of 113 [illegible] trained athletes started today on the last lap of a long trail that leads to fame and no gold as members of the American Olympic wrestling team.

Members of the group are survivors of a large field that started eliminations a few weeks ago in National Collegiate association, Amateur Athletic Union and Y M C A circles. Nineteen states, the District of Columbia and Hawaii will be represented in the finals.

By Saturday seven will be named on the American team and a like number selected as alternates. The trip to Los Angeles will be started the latter part of next week.

Each of the final matches will be of six minutes duration with no credit being given for a competitor registering a fall and one point against him if he wins by decision. However a fall or decision scored against an entrant counts three marks. A total of five black marks automatically eliminates a competitor from further consideration.

In case a fall has not been registered in the six minute period the referee and judges name the competitor having the advantage and he is given his choice of wrestling nine minutes longer with both opponents on their feet or in three periods of three minutes each with the hold advantage alternating.

Competition will be in seven classes, 123, 134, 145, 155, 174 and 191 pound and heavyweight division, with a winner and alternate crowned in each class.

Cubs Carry on Minus Help of Star Shortstop

CHICAGO July 7—The Chicago Cubs carried on today without the services of their star shortstop, Bill Jurges, while the police investigated the events that caused a pretty brunette to shoot and wound him and herself.

BILL JURGES

Although the woman, Miss Violet Popovich Valli, a divorcee and a former chorus girl, insisted that she intended only to shoot herself, the police were in possession of a letter that gave a murder and suicide complexion to the case.

The letter, addressed to Miss Valli's brother and written just before she invaded Jurges' hotel room yesterday and wounded him twice, blamed Kiki Cuyler, Cub outfielder, and Lew Steadman for breaking up her romance. She advised her brother, Mike Popovich, a Chicago Y M C A employe, that she planned to kill Jurges and herself.

Cuyler denied that he had interfered with the romance except to admit that Jurges asked his advice and that he told him he was too young to think of love.

Neither the girl nor Jurges was in a serious condition today. Jurges suffered two wounds, one bullet entering his right side, grazing a rib and piercing the right shoulder and the other ripping the flesh around the little finger of his left hand. Miss Valli was shot in the left hand.

Dr John Davis, Cub physician, who happened to be in the Hotel Carlos lobby when the shooting occurred, said that Jurges would be able to play baseball within three or four weeks unless complications set in.

Neither would discuss the affair today.

HOMERS IN ORDER AS SAINTS AND MILLERS CHALK UP VICTORIES

Toledo and Columbus Humbled in Barrage of Four Base Wallops

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO July 7—People who live in glass houses around St Paul American Association parks

With home run clubs open in both cities baseballs are taking one merry ride after another out of the parks and into foreign territory.

Yesterday as the two Twin clubs turned back eastern invasions 10 homers resulted from the long distance bombardment, five at St Paul and five more at Minneapolis.

At Minneapolis Hauser, Mosolf, Ganzel and Harris joined in a home run barrage that gave the Millers an easy 9 to 3 victory over Toledo.

Hale of the Mud Hens accounted one out of the lot to account for two of the Hens' three runs. Hauser's blow was his twent of the season.

Fenner, Jeffries, Beck and man contributed home runs as St Paul defeated Columbus 9 to while Cullop, now with the Red Birds, cashed in one for himself.

Jeffries starred afield as well as at the plate with three hits and spectacular plays.

Louisville took a 4 to 3 victory over Milwaukee. Polli was the losing pitcher, suffering his first defeat since rejoining the Brewers.

Indianapolis, its fielders accustomed to the glare of electric lights, fared better than Kansas City in the first night game played by association clubs at Muehlebach field.

The Indians beat the Blues 3 to 0, scoring one run in the first, the sixth and the ninth innings.

A frog requires four years to attain full growth

Once Crippled with Rheumatism
Now A Lively Spirited Woman—Happy Cheerful and Gay
What A Victory For HER—and For Allenru
It's the bright woman who never gives up she makes up her mind that rheumatic pain and agony isn't going to cause her a lifetime of misery and unhappiness
Blessed with common sense this woman didn't waste but little time fooling with makeshift remedies which bring relief to be sure — but still keep you a prisoner in the old arm chair—what foolishness
Clever this woman was—she learned that uric acid is a poison —that it settles deep in joints and muscles—she learned that these vicious deep seated deposits were the cause of her rheumatic agony and she found something—
TO REMOVE THE CAUSE
She read about Allenru in the newspaper This quick acting prescription she learned was guaranteed to start uric acid poison leaving the body in 24 hours—her hope increased as she read further that Allenru would cause pain agony distress and swelling to leave in 48 hours
Keen minded she was—she knew that Allenru was the remedy she wanted and she purchased one 85 cent bottle—her story ends here
When poisonous uric acid left her joints and muscles she was happy once more—lively active cheerful again
Heines & Cooper dispenses Allenru so do leading druggists everywhere Adv

The American & Foreign Power common and preferred issues and International Telephone, advanced moderately. The tobacco shares and some of the leading rails got up fractionally. U S steel recovered a loss of ⅝. Armour of Delaware preferred gained nearly 3 points.

International banking quarters remained moderately hopeful over Lausanne feeling that distinctly constructive developments were bound to come out of the parley regardless of the apparent deadlock over the "war guilt" clause. Foreign bonds were again steady to firm and buying of such equities may have been prompted by a feeling that nations were coming together on economic problems. In commodities the sweeping advance in hog prices has attracted considerable attention in financial quarters and presumably was responsible for the upturn in Armour of Delaware preferred. The New York Tractions advanced in response to the mayor's call for a unification conference.

GRAIN VALUES IN EARLY DROP

Pressure of New Crop Supply at Liverpool Causes General Sag.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO July 7—Downturns in grain values early today accompanied Liverpool reports of expected pressure of new wheat from Germany and Russia next month. Besides better weather prevailed for domestic harvest operations southwest and foreign markets failed to follow yesterday's price upturn on this side of the Atlantic. Opening ⅛-⅜ off wheat later held near the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to ⅛ lower and subsequently sagged all around.

Rallies which developed after moderate setbacks in wheat prices were attributed to some eastern buying and to relative absence of selling either from hedgers or speculators. Bulls pointed out that the grain stabilization corporation still had available for sale only 35,000,000 bushels of cash wheat compared with 257,000,000 bushels it held at the height of its operations. There was talk that disposal of the 35,000,000 bushels of wheat would have little if any bearish effect hereafter and that 25,000,000 to 30,000,000 of the stabilization corporation's future delivery holding in September and December would also prove negligible as a bearish influence.

Some notice was taken that nine months ago the Chicago market advanced 20 cents a bushel in one month. It was recalled that reverses which overlook spring York Central Railroad Co credited Canadian border were largely responsible. Official confirmation of black rust in Canada now was regarded in some quarters as significant. On the other hand Winnipeg reported overseas demand flat and Russian offerings cheap for deferred shipment. Corn and oats were sustained by continued suggestions of possible export business.

Provisions reflected steadiness of hog values.

LUCKY STRIKE
"IT'S TOASTED"
CIGARETTES

"We've spilled the beans" in the smoker's interest

DO you inhale? "You've spilled the beans!" said the cigarette trade when first we asked this simple question—a question which long had been treated with silence that would "shame a Sphinx!"

Why? Wasn't the subject vital enough to pursue? Or, was there a hidden reason for the general avoid- ance of the question by others? Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has [illegible]—because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? Of course you do—and so, in the smoker's interest, Luckies have not feared to "spill the beans!"

Human Nature on Parade in Line of Aid Seekers

A student of human nature can find material for speculation in the line of the unemployed that gathers almost every morning in the hall on the second floor of the city hall to visit the office of the relief commissioner.

As the line grows in length human nature in many of its ramifications is presented. The defiant man believes the world, especially the city, owes him a living and he is going to collect it. This type is usually found among those who have been living off of the city for years and intends to continue. They accept relief with no sign of appreciation.

The pathetic struggling along for years never quite able to make both ends meet but making it go so long as they were given a day's work now and then. Sickness and other misfortune have long ago broken their spirit and they stand back against the wall with eyes cast down, the picture of dejection and blasted hopes. They accept their grocery orders with mumbled thanks.

The professional beggar has accepted help from the city for years and in many cases are descendants of those who in years past have been kept by the city. They have no interest in the present or the future. They accept their grocery orders with a half smiling thank you, laughing and joking while standing in line.

The most recent additions to the line are the most tragic. They are those who have been reduced through lack of work from the home owner, the once substantial citizen with his automobile and his radio, to the ranks of the bread line.

Out of work for a year or perhaps two years, their savings have been used up, their homes mortgaged to the limit, their automobiles and radio sold and their credit gone. Their clothing although old and worn is usually clean and pressed, a striking contrast to the others. They stand embarrassed, self conscious and when their turn comes to enter the commissioner's office hurry in and out but always expressing their appreciation.

How Modern Women Lose Pounds of Fat Swiftly—Safely

Gain Physical Vigor—Youthfulness With Clear Skin and Vivacious Eyes That Sparkle With Glorious Health

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast — cut down on pastry and fatty meats — go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar — in 4 weeks get on the scales and note how many pounds of fat have vanished.

Notice also that you have gained in energy — your skin is clearer — your eyes sparkle with glorious health — you feel younger in body — keener in mind. Kruschen will give any fat person a joyous surprise.

Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts — the cost is trifling and it lasts 4 weeks. If even this first bottle doesn't convince you this is the easiest, safest and surest way to lose fat — if you don't feel a superb improvement in health — so gloriously energetic — vigorously alive — your money gladly returned.

But be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at Henney & Cooper's or any drugstore in the world.—Adv.

The Stars Say—

For Friday, July 8

ALTHOUGH this promises to be a lively enough day with some prospects for advancement and progress, yet there are adverse configurations pointing to delays, hostility, turbulence and false moves which may prove detrimental. Preserve calm and controlled poise and meet opposition with good nature.

Those whose birthday it is may find some degree of recognition in employment or in dealing with superiors but there may be impediments, hostility, abrupt changes and an exciting and turbulent state of affairs threatening the chances of success. Keep firm control on the tendencies to strife, violence, impetuosity and haste in both business and private life. A child born on this day should be clever, versatile, practical and hardworking but may be prone to be fiery, rash, passionate and defiant.

A hole in … testimony that at … was someone's luck charm. A profile bust resembling George Washington graces the face of the coin.

Another old penny bearing the date of 1806 takes its place with pennies of ancient vintage. The coin is the property of L. B. Morse of North State street and is one of a collection which belonged to his grandfather, M. J. Benedict of Morrow county, now the property of his mother, Mrs. Frank Morse of Marysville. The penny has a reproduction of the head of a man on one side with the inscription "Georgeus the 3d" and on the reverse side is the figure of a woman.

John Spaulding of 737 South Prospect street has found two old pennies, big ones, dated 1829 and 1833 respectively among his old coins. One coin not believed to be an American piece is dated 1787.

Mrs. J. T. Fisher of North State street has a half penny dated 1809 among her collection of old coins.

Well Hidden

DON'T hide jewelry in peanut bags.

That's the moral behind a Lost and Found advertisement that appeared in The Star columns this week.

Two young men of Marion went swimming the other afternoon east of the city. One of them gave the other his ring and watch for safe keeping and he slipped them in a bag of peanuts laying on the seat of the automobile. The owner forgot about the jewelry until they were back in Marion.

On the way home they picked up a young boy whose face was familiar but whose name they didn't know. The three ate peanuts until the boy reached his destination and when he got out they generously gave him the rest of them.

When the owner of the ring and watch asked his friend where they were put for safekeeping the friend puzzled for a minute and then remembered they were in the sack of peanuts.

The ring was initialed C. P. E. The owner of the jewelry and his companion who was such a good hider are searching faces diligently in the hope of finding the boy who innocently walked away with the jewelry. He doesn't know them and they don't know him except on sight.

Business Booster

SEVERAL years ago before the rock garden era, when stones were regarded as something to throw out in the alley or in the neighbor's yard, Emery M. Murphy, a member of Mayor Phillian's cabinet, moved into his new home in Oakland Heights addition.

The home was lovely, the only disturbing element being the number of stones in the yard. There being too many to throw into the neighbor's yard or in the alley the resident bargained with a rubbish hauler to carefully remove the unsightly objects, a $10 bill being necessary to assure their removal.

The rubbish hauler did his work well and the stones were removed to a distant point leaving the yard clean and stoneless. Recently members of the household fell a victim of the rock garden epidemic … the only thing needed to complete the garden was stones. Once again the rubbish hauler was called into service and for another $10 bill the stones were carefully returned to the yard.

Carl Max Leys, secretary, and Charles Howard have begun meeting on Tuesday afternoons for work on the ranges with any active members of the Y over 12 years of age. To date only a few have been working with the men but the number shows signs of increasing as the interest in the new sport spreads.

SEVENTY-FIVE SCIENTIFIC TESTS PROVE OLD GOLD COOLEST SMOKE

LABORATORY CHECK PLACES O. G. FIRST, EASIEST ON THROAT

"O. G.'s Finer Tobacco and its Freedom from Added Flavorings Make it a Definitely Cooler Cigarette," say Noted Authorities

"Conclusive evidence that Old Gold gives a cooler smoke . . . cooler than any of the three other leading cigarette brands . . . has been obtained through the most accurate heat-testing method known to Science," it has been announced by the New York Testing Laboratories.

"Seventy-five repeated tests of the four big brands confirmed this finding," G. Brinton Jack, Jr., Director of the Laboratories, asserted. Mr. Jack emphatically stated that the tests were initiated by the Laboratories solely as a matter of scientific research, and entirely without the participation of cigarette manufacturers.

"Accurate temperature records made of the smoke of each of the four cigarettes completed the proof that Old Gold is definitely cooler than the other brands," Mr. Jack asserted.

"It is not our province in this report to speculate on the reasons for Old Gold's cooler smoking qualities," Mr. Jack stated. "But we are told that Old Gold is a … of the finest and purest tobacco quality . . . without artificial flavoring. This alone might well account for its … ness and mildness, since low … containing oily flavorings … and irritating fumes."

Scientists of Two Leading Universities Check Tests That Prove Old Gold Best

Scientists of two leading Universities have checked the tests described on this page and their findings corroborated in every detail those of the New York Testing Laboratories.

Samples of each lot of cigarettes tested have been sealed in airtight bottles:

1. For scientists who may wish to check the tests.
2. To refer to in later years to see what effect the tests have had in improving other brands up to the Old Gold pure tobacco standard.

To any scientific or technical authority, the signed copies of these test results will be sent on application to P. Lorillard Company, Inc., 119 West 40th St., New York City.

THE EVIDENCE OF SCIENCE

"This is to certify that in 75 repeated cool tests made of the 4 leading cigarette brands . . . measuring the heat content of each cigarette in B. T. Us. with the Oxygen Bomb Calorimeter, it was shown that:

Old Gold averages 113 B.T.Us. Cooler than Brand X
Old Gold averages 105 B.T.Us. Cooler than Brand Y
Old Gold averages 120 B.T.Us. Cooler than Brand Z

"To further verify Old Gold's coolness, the temperature (Fahrenheit) of the smoke of each cigarette brand was checked and Old Gold's smoke was found to be definitely cooler than the smoke of the other three brands."

To Ralph Forbes goes the deckle-edged, [illegible] certificate for thinking up a new irritation for Hollywood's temporarily married people. Forbes, who may or may not be known to natives of upstate down land as Mr. Ruth Chatterton, but he himself [illegible] able by dressing for dinner.

Excuses have been worn pretty thin by long usage in the moving picture colony. Even "incompatibility," which would seem to be good enough to last indefinitely, is being greeted with thinly veiled laughter out in the great beyond where the boxoffice is king.

Then came Forbes and his insistence on dressing for dinner when his wife preferred to be comfortable in pajamas. Naturally no one would expect any human being to put up with an annoyance so palpably conceived and executed with the intention of mental torture.

Of course pajamas and a dinner jacket are one thing and mutual regard as between two moving picture notables is another. Therefore it is made known that Miss Chatterton and Mr. Forbes, whatever may happen, will always retain the deepest respect for each other.

Who, one wonders, is the genius who fixes up divorce cases so cleverly that they will not have the slightest effect on patronage? And who is the other genius who tells the first genius that it helps any to go to all the trouble?

A Game for Two.

The overwhelming approval given by the British house of commons to the government's proposal for a tariff up to 100 per cent on imports from the scrappy Irish Free State leaves no doubt that Eamon de Valera and his stubborn friends are up against a stone wall. They have selected a game at which two can play. If they refuse to pay the land annuity installment due the British will refuse to allow them the use of their best outlet for products.

Strangely enough Americans, who should be intensely interested in the Free State's stubborn resistance to British authority, are ideally impartial spectators. They view the independence-seeking Irish much as they have come to view the independence-seeking Indians—as sincere people who have overestimated the succulence of the greenery on the other side of the fence. The 18th century and the Declaration of Independence were a long time ago when it is a matter of sympathy for revolutionary tendencies on the part of dissatisfied people.

The fact is that Americans are too oppressed with a tremendous weight of trouble on the shoulders of all nations to conceive of any government wilfully prodding the god of war. It stretches their imagination to believe that the Irishmen of the Free State want independence so much that they are willing to fight for it. Thus far have Americans come from the days when patriots marked the trails of Valley Forge with frozen blood. Instead of seeing Eamon de Valera as an heroic upholder of the principles of freedom, Americans see him as a stubborn fellow who foolishly would wreck his little country's commerce for the sake of an ideal. He is in fact no better than that other idealist, Mahatma Gandhi. Undoubtedly there were some Tories who felt the same way once about George Washington. But that was a long time ago.

Did Some One Say Conceit?

Another one of those extraordinarily durable papyri has been unearthed in Egypt. This one, say the interpreters who insist on passing it along for what it is worth, once was a Memphis (Egypt) newspaper. Its content is printed herewith on the chance that the wood pulp producers furnishing this newspaper's supply of newsprint may have built acid stains longevity into this page. The article itself is assurance of a future that may be able to use reassurance from the past.

A few lawless men are depriving the land of sovereignty. The laws are cast out and the men walk upon them in public. The lawbreaker is lord of wealth; the rich man has lost all.

Scanty is gold; craftsmen are without work; the reaper of the harvest gets nothing, while he who plowed not profits. The land is depleted. There are more pirates than ever. I show thee a land turned upside down. The end of all civilization draws nigh.

Forty centuries ago the Egyptians had a name for all this. It was the equivalent of depression. In its clammy grasp they waited to hear the [illegible] impending smashup of civilization, particularly the Egyptian branch, and gave up Osiris or whatever [illegible] served in those pagan days.

They took a vast deal of somber pleasure in harboring the ridiculous conceit that they, being more important than any other people of the past, present or future, had been marked specially for destruction. They could not understand how the world was going to wobble along any longer, yet here it is, [illegible] 5,000 years later with conditions prevailing that make Egyptians look extremely primitive and unenlightened. However, solemn assurance is given out by many seers that this is the end again. It is probably no use to argue with people who feel that way about it.

Campaign Keynote

[illegible] Roosevelt's campaign keynote speech delivered in the closing session of the Democratic convention Saturday afternoon removed the last [illegible] doubt [illegible] the appeal by which the nominee will attempt [illegible] to become the first Democrat since Woodrow Wilson to occupy the White House. It was a note of popular liberalism [illegible] Governor struck a note that comes as [illegible] harmony with the precepts [illegible] of Jefferson [illegible] changed times.

Mr. Roosevelt [illegible] accept [illegible] has challenge [illegible] His address Saturday [illegible] directed at the [illegible] It was calculated to convince the farmer, the worker and the little business man that their interests have been served badly [illegible] Herbert Hoover. His campaign [illegible] Mr. Roosevelt is to be a crusade to restore [illegible] the people.

[illegible] this is a mighty [illegible] his absolute fairness and in [illegible] conceded that this is a [illegible] favorable for the challenging party. [illegible] plain the people are discontented [illegible] the party in control. It is [illegible] the Republican administration [illegible] to deal with facts and can not [illegible] can the Democratic party [illegible] attempt to serve all the people [illegible] not settled by logic but by prejudice. It is Mr. Roosevelt's intention and his privilege to appeal to that prejudice.

There will be none of the confusing sameness of the two parties this election year that has puzzled voters in preceding years. A wide shift of factors has [illegible] many sharp points of difference. This year, for instance, one party will point to the future, the other to its record in the immediate past. Republicans having burned their fingers on futurities will not be likely to be tempted again. Promising will be left to Democrats. It is one of the risks they will have to accept.

On the prohibition and tariff issues the Democratic party has taken positions that distinguish it clearly from the Republican party. Again the Democratic stand on relief and farm aid is different from the Republican stand. It can be predicted with reasonable certainty furthermore that as the campaign progresses further differences will develop. The strongest line of Democratic attack will be to capitalize on the public's fretfulness over the continuance of the depression by offering voters a complete change of political philosophy.

By the token that party politics is a game in which quarter never is asked because none will be given the prospect for a great campaign this year is unusually good. In development of a nation's strength there are certain periods of unusual importance. The year 1932 in which the two major political parties are destined to make a fight to the finish on definitely conflicting principles will be one of those periods. The United States will emerge from it with a clearer conception of the importance of government [illegible] individual citizens.

The Beer Prospect

Close examination has been required the last few days to find the dry spots on the political front. They are still there nevertheless—enough of them probably to prevent any liberalizing of national prohibition before the next session of congress. The Democratic platform promise of immediate modification of the Volstead act to permit legal sale of beer and wine will not be kept for many months to come unless there is a remarkable upset of the established order of things.

In addition to the drys who will block any and all efforts to modify the Volstead act there are the administration Republicans who will oppose the Democratic program for political reasons. Legal beer would be a great talking point for the party able to claim the credit for obtaining it. Republicans even though favorable to modification will prefer to wait until after November to start the legislative mill.

Another hitch in the beer prospect that is likely to be overlooked in initial enthusiasm over the new liberal attitude of the political parties is taxation. Many sources advocating modification of the Volstead act to permit legal manufacture and sale of beer are far more interested in the money that can be collected than any of the principles involved. It has been pointed out with less humor than foresight by others that both political parties are pursuing the good old government policy of increasing the cost of beer to the consumer in order that the consumed product may be taxed. Home brewers enjoying their low priced product have a thing to gain by modification of the Volstead act and the heavy tax on beer that is sure to follow it.

Members of the next house of representatives and newly elected members of the senate in the next congress will have been elected with a clear understanding of their views on the 18th amendment as well as their views on modification of the Volstead act pending action on the larger problem. They should have and probably will have the [illegible] rights of the first step toward [illegible] making legislative [illegible] changes.

In [illegible] state legislation is proposed to prohibit [illegible] [illegible] equally elevating [illegible] would [illegible] the public.

One Person in Ten Has Gallstones

Not so long ago I wrote about kidney stones and pointed out that stone formation can take place anywhere in the body where there enters fluid containing salt. Stones in the kidney and gallbladder are of common occurrence and today I want to tell you particularly about stones that form in the gallbladder.

The gallbladder is a small pouch located on the under surface of the liver. It contains many fatty organic salts. Infection may occur in the gallbladder and produce an inflammatory condition of the lining of the sac. This condition is called cholecystitis. The salts contained within the gallbladder may become deposited around a collection of germs and form a stone technically called cholelithiasis.

The stone may be small or large and more than one stone may be present. As many as a hundred gallstones have been found at one operation. When the stone is small it may work its way out of the gallbladder into the duct or tube leading into the intestine and causes extreme pain, a condition called gallstone colic, which does not subside until the stone has been dislodged.

If the stone is caught in the common duct it will obstruct the passage of bile from the liver and cause jaundice. The skin assumes a yellowish tinge and there is marked itching of the skin due to the excessive deposits of bile.

Gallstones are more common than is believed. The ailment is found in about ten per cent of the population. It is most common in those over forty years of age and is rare before the age of thirty.

The condition is more frequently encountered in women than in men and it is believed to be encouraged by sedentary habits and faulty diet. Overeating and overweight are suspected to be factors but this theory has never been proven true.

The formation of gallstones among persons suffering from diabetes is exceedingly common. The explanation for this is still unknown.

There are some persons having gallstones who show marked digestive disturbance. Gas, nausea and distress after meals are common complaints. In acute attacks the pain is severe and passes to the back and right shoulder. In some cases, however, there is no pain or discomfort and the stones are accidentally discovered during an X-ray examination for some other ailment.

Within recent years due to the great advance made in the use of the X-ray, it is possible to visualize the gallbladder and in most cases to photograph the gallstones.

I receive many letters requesting advice about medicine and diet that will dissolve or cure gallstones. Once gallstones have formed they can not be dissolved. Operation is the only cure, but this does not mean that all cases require operations, for gallstones often are harmless and cause no pain. It is only when gallstone colic is present or when the gallbladder is inflamed that surgical attention is necessary.

The operation is simple and need cause no alarm. Please bear in mind that repeated attacks of gallstone colic are dangerous if neglected. A ruptured gallbladder may result from such negligence. This is a serious condition and requires immediate attention.

Glimpses of the Past

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Friday, July 7, 1922.

His vacation visit to Marion ended, President Harding left Columbus after an all-night stay there to motor through to Washington where he expected immediately to enter again upon conferences aimed to bring about peace between coal miners and operators then deadlocked in their efforts to settle the strike.

American Commercial Attache Herring at Berlin in a report to Secretary of Commerce Hoover said that Germany would fail to meet Allied reparations payments unless taxation in that country was increased. He predicted that sufficient taxes would be collected for Germany to meet its obligations.

June Heusel, 9, died in City hospital as a result of burns received the preceding day when her dress caught fire while she was playing with a lighted candle at the home of a neighbor on Marion avenue.

M. L. Wilson, county clerk of courts, completed his annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30, showing a large increase in business in the office.

Members of P. D. Q. club were entertained by Miss Florence [illegible] at her home on East Center street.

Mrs. Harry Boltz was hostess to the Algonquin club at her home on Olney avenue with Mrs. John Hibbarty, a visitor from California, as the honor guest.

Roger W. Babson in a statement issued regarding the economic situation said: "There is no way really to help business during this period of readjustment. The reason that various campaigns to cheer up business have failed is because in the early part of a period of depression business needs something more than a cheering up. These periods of hard times are not merely a state of mind. They are the result of excesses the same as a spell of sickness. They can be cured only by first removing the causes. So-called sunshine and boosting campaigns are as futile as trying to cure a patient with stimulants when what he needs is a dose of physic."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Sunday, July 7, 1912.

Signed by Roosevelt leaders in 10 states and addressed, "To the People of United States without regard to past political differences," a call for a Roosevelt third party to a convention in Chicago Aug. 5 was issued through Senator Joseph M. Dixon of Montana.

The Forest Lawn baseball team was defeated by Crestline at Crestline by a score of 7-3. Shrock, Young and Clapsaddle did the battery work for Marion and Bagley and "Channel" for Crestline.

John J. Arthur Irey, 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Irey, died at his parents' home in Caledonia from an illness caused by whooping cough and pneumonia.

C. B. Merchant celebrated the sixty fifth anniversary of his birth with a family reunion at his home on East Church street.

A company of 25 Marion residents, most of them members of the Kensington club, enjoyed a hay wagon ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Messenger, south of Claridon, and spent the day picnicking along the banks of the Whetstone river.

The Marion County W. C. T. U. held a Flower Mission service at the Marion County Children's home. It was attended by the 41 children in the home at that time and about 50 citizens of Marion.

Marion Ohio State League team lost to Newark, 4-3, in a game at Webb park here. Troutman pitched for Marion and Hanley for Newark.

The annual picnic of the Marion [illegible] of Israel was held at [illegible] Lake, Delaware, with [illegible] from Columbus, Kenton and Delaware, including Dr. Korn [illegible] rabbi.

[illegible] amount of business [illegible] by the Erie railroad through Marion was occasioning [illegible] comment. It was not [illegible] that the business during June [illegible] the usual summer decrease but was equal to the amount [illegible] during the winter months.

Small mirrors mounted at the side of glasses for motorists enable them to watch traffic without turning their heads.

OHIO'S "VALLEY FORGE"

Ohio too had its Valley Forge during the war of the Revolution. A company of several hundred men under General Lachlan McIntosh, struggling through the eastern Ohio woods in the spring of 1779, were reduced to a condition compelling them to make soup from hides they had or could procure from the Indians. On file in Washington is a letter from General Washington to congress in which he expressed [illegible] for General McIntosh and noted that he had great faith in the plan to strike the British in the West and felt General McIntosh could handle the situation.

But the expedition came to naught. Getting of supplies was difficult. McIntosh reached the Tuscarawas and was there forced to await the arrival of supplies which did not come. He decided to leave a detachment at the fort he had built and march the main body back to Fort Pitt. It was on this march that hardship overtook the men. During part of the march their only food consisted of soup made from dried beef hides.

New York Day by Day

She was first of the weird literary hedge flowers the Village nurtured and her epileptic essays brought that old town yearning—fame and fortune. Today with a plentiful income she lives abroad most [illegible] in an out-of-way village near Paris. She is rarely seen by Americans.

Advanced modernists hail her as the high priestess of a growing cult. In the reverse she is a weaver of words in strange patterns. Her first effort was a despised volume called for no reason at all "Tender Buttons." To all misunderstandable it had an enormous sale.

Her grotesque motor is the use of words to achieve symphonies in sound instead of intelligible meaning. Thus one may be bewildered by such sombre attenuations as this: "The moon struck whose job is a dance mild autumn dusk and red apples laughing in the lap."

The army of disciples—and they are to be found in every walk of life—believe her to be inspired. But the majority regarding it as divinely useless mirth read her with tongue in cheek. There are two minor cynics who believe they know the source of her incredible meanderings.

As a fairly consistent reader of the Bible I suggest those interested read from The Song of Deborah. Better still perhaps turn to the Old Testament—Book of Judges 5 verses [illegible] and 30. Then read some of Miss Stein's high voltage verbiage and see what you shall see.

In the same fashion I wonder if George M. Cohan might not have plucked his zippy enthusiasm for the flag from the late H. C. Bunner, famous editor of Puck. He was a sterling poet who inscribed many popular strophes to the stars and stripes, such as "Hats Off, the Flag Is Passing By," during the formative days when Cohan was ventilating his nasal twang for the populace. Bunner's home in Nutley, N. J., fairly fluttered with the American emblem. His next door neighbor incidentally was Annie Oakley, the celebrated rifle shot.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1932 C. M. Co.

THERE is some money left in this country of worries and doubts fortunately. Statements published by the two biggest banks in America show that the Chase bank has assets amounting to one thousand seven hundred and thirty one million dollars and the National City bank assets of one thousand five hundred and sixty seven millions. When this money and some other billions get into business and payrolls prosperity will come back.

But banks can not distribute the billions. That must be done through individual initiative which is discouraged by destructive taxation born of reckless government extravagance.

THE INCREASE in letter postage from 2 to 3 cents will cost New York City alone $60 000 a day. It disturbs banks and brokers. The increases in registered mail charges are a heavy tax on those who ship articles of great value. One concern which sent a registered package from New York to San Francisco paid $135. Before the new rate it would have cost less than $8.

Macken-Patton Ceremony Read at 9:30 A. M. Today

MEMBERS of the immediate families and a few close friends were guests at the breakfast which followed the marriage of Miss Alice Margaret Macken and City Solicitor Carter M Patton this morning at 9 30 o'clock at St Mary's parsonage on North Main street. The ceremony was read by Rev Father William J Spickerman. They were attended by Miss Margaret Harlow and John Wiedemann.

Chartreuse and orchid were the colors predominating in the floral design of the bride's gown which was of chiffon over a peach colored slip. Tucks fashioned the close fitting lines and formed the flare of the skirt which was made ankle length and the neckline was finished with a bertha. The gown was sleeveless and was held at the waistline with a belt of chartreuse velvet ribbon. Her large hairbraid hat and satin pumps were in shades of chartreuse and she wore white gloves. Her prayerbook was showered with yellow roses caught with ivory colored ribbon.

Miss Harlow wore a printed chiffon frock in pale blue and white and her large hairbraid hat, slippers and gloves were in white. Her flowers were Talisman roses, gypsophila and delphinium fashioned in a shoulder bouquet.

A wedding cake and bouquets of flowers in pastel shades decorated the table for the breakfast served at Dinger's Inn south of the city.

Mr and Mrs Patton left on a motor trip through the south and next week will attend the national Elks convention in Birmingham Ala to which Mr Patton as past exalted ruler of the Marion lodge is a delegate. For traveling Mrs Patton wore a two piece navy blue ensemble with a white hat and slippers.

Mrs Patton is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Walter Macken of South Main street. She is a graduate of St Mary's parochial school and for more than three years was employed in the law office of Donithen & Donithen. She is active in musical and literary circles and is affiliated with the Lecture Recital club and Beta chapter of the Delphian society.

Mr Patton is the son of Mr and Mrs E F Patton of Leader street. He is a graduate of Marion High school and of the law college at Ohio Northern university and is a member of the Sigma Pi fraternity. He is a member of the law firm of Patton and Wiedemann.

Mr and Mrs Patton will be at home at 245 South Main street after Aug 1.

Please please Dr Titherington interrupted the cripple. Spare us on a warm morning like this If I hear just one more such quotation I shall froth at the mouth and bite somebody

Alfred sat up behind the overturned couch

The steward s face was ghastly pale His left arm roughly bandaged in torn sheeting showed as a great splotch of crimson against the background of his white service jacket A semi-circle of empty clips was mute evidence of the fact that he had been a bulwark of the strength during the long night s siege

Martin as usual was silent Propped on one elbow behind a parapet of chairs at the northwest corner window he fingered his automatic lovingly

Emory sipping his liquor slowly gazed across the room at the strange silent man with something like wonder in his eyes Who could have thought that that taciturn prosaic little real estate promoter would have had his bright moment of cold blooded death-defying courage? Two hours before Emory had watched amazed as Martin had vaulted out of his window sprinted across 50 feet of bullet swept sand and retrieved an au omatic dropped by a dead attacker

Tired of being shot at without being able to shoot back!" he had explained grimly to Emory who had raced across the room leaned out of the window and whisked him back into the relative security of the barricades

And Mallory There was another study in psychology He had burst out of his room cold-sober and at the first massed attack upon the house he had been quietly efficient firing steadily accurately as though shooting at clay pigeons on a range

Oh yes it had been a merry little night Perhaps of them all Dr Titherington had been the outstanding hero A man of peace unable to have secured one of the all too few automatics had he wanted it the minister had stood sentry go over the two corridors leading to the two rear wings to make sure that none of the gangsters had succeeded in slipping between the house and either beach for a flank attack He had done his duty throughout the long night

But most of all it was the minister s tender watch over Hamilton which had inspired even the grudging admiration of the cynical Ashwood

Still tied with the bonds that Stevens had wound round him Hamilton lay in a coma from which he had emerged in wild delirium when the fighting had reached a crisis Yet through it all Dr Titherington had soothed him with never flagging patience crawling over to him at frequent intervals to see if he still slept and if the barricade of furniture and mattresses still shel ered him from stray bullets

How much ammunition left" called the cripple Alfred"

Only two clips sir

Martin?

Four clips

Good Mallory?

Three

And Battles has two That makes fourteen I have three myself Seventeen in all We ll have to go easy from now on Don t shoot unless you are positive you can drop your man

Why don t Calhoun and Stevens come back?" grumbled Mallory "With a plane and a machine gun they could run the blighters off the island

Are you asking me riddles?" demanded Emory irritated

For the past three hours he had tormented himself with the same question He had heard his monoplane take off after the amphibian Something in the reckless surge of its engine had told him that Jerry was at the controls Having seen Stevens run down the hall after Jerry he assumed that the two were together in the plane He knew that Nancy was not in the house What had happened to her he did not know Nor did he know why Jerry had gone flying away in the night when his presence would have added so much to the strength of the be eged forces in the house

It had not occurred to him to question Jerry s motives Jerry's safety was the only thing that worried him

But now that rock-eat screaming zoom of the monoplane had been with Jerry s hand on the stick And once in the air Jerry would be safe If von Richthofen s red nosed circus hadn t been able to bring him down at St. Quentin certainly he was in no danger now

Emory his eyes just over the chipped edge of the table gazed steadily toward the hangar Five men stood talking in the palm grove just out of pistol range As he watched them curious he saw two of them pick up a machine gun and tripod and walk in a wide circle toward the easterly side of the house Then just within range he mounted the gun and lay down in the sand ...

"Heart of a Wife"

BY ADELE GARRISON

Sam Brixton Unaware That He Is Suspected By Other Searchers for the Missing Girls Walks Into the Chief's Trap

I CAUGHT my breath sharply as Sam Brixton hastily arrogated to himself the task of writing the stalling note to the kidnapers I was sure that everyone else in the room save Sam himself and Helena had realized that my father s ostentatious drawing of pen and paper to himself had been a sort of trap

By common consent the "Chief" was in command of the plans for thwarting the kidnapers No other person in the room would have presumed to set him aside as Sam Brixton had done I knew that we all were asking the same question Were the man s natural uncouthness and arrogance alone to blame for his action or—did he perchance have some other and more sinister reason for having this note to the kidnapers in his own writing

There was of course no answer to our question to be found as yet and it seemed a far fetched query indeed as we watched the stout red faced man toiling over the letter his face lined with apparently the same grief and anxiety as the every cent we can It will ruin us

How s this?" he said at last lifting his head and holding the paper near his eyes as he read

We have been working all day to get together the staggering sum you have named but no matter what happens it is an impossibility to raise it in so short a time You evidently are mistaken in us We none of us are rich and you must know what the present state of usually good securities is We are making every effort to do as you demand and have some money ready Please let us know what is the lowest sum you will take In the meantime we are going on straining every nerve to raise every cent we can It will ruin us but we will do it Can t you have a little pity?"

He handed the paper over to my father

You ve signed it my father commented

Yes Mr Brixton answered a bit confusedly I thought it would be better if we all signed give em an idea we were keeping faith with em don t you think?"

Oh assuredly my father said ... That is if you parents sign They probably don t know the rest of us are on earth

Don t you ever believe that don t Mr Brixton retorted but added quickly the sooner no harm get past fakers like those

Do you want me to sign it Sam? Helena quavered It seems as if I were signing my baby's death warrant when you are quibbling over money like that

We re not quibbling darling her big husband told her and his eyes to my fancy were suddenly tender as he looked at her If necessary we ll accept Mr Verity zen s offer but if we accept their terms right off the reel they're apt to think we're easy and demand more before they let the girls go Don t you all think so?" He turned to the rest of us

The Note Is Signed

"Absolutely You're right old man That s the ticket My father Dicky and Harry spoke almost at once and Sam Brixton nodded satisfiedly

You see darling? he adjured his wife "They all agree with me that this is the best thing to do Lillian thinks so too I am sure don t you Lil?"

But Lillian would not look at him I saw a sudden faint tremor pass over her face like a shadow then she spoke slowly but emphatically

It is the only wise thing to do Helena she said "I am sure of that Sign it dear right after your husband and then Harry and I will sign

All right Helena quavered I ll sign it But her fingers trembled so that she had to stop several times before she had completed her signature

You next Lillian she said childishly and Lillian affixed her signature to the letter with a firm hand and passed it to her husband When he had signed it he handed it to Dicky

That s your job now old boy he said Have you got the directions ?

Copy of Marion s letter in my pocket Dicky returned 'Circle that little plateau three times and dip twice to let them known I m the right party Then drop this inside a pasteboard box Then I ll beat it for it s a cinch nobody ll come out into the open until I m miles away from there but of course somebody will be watching from the woods nearby

Why near by? Sam Brixton demanded quickly They wouldn t take a risk of putting their heads in a trap They ll be watching that airplane from as far away as they can get and they won t come after that box until it is dark I ll bet five to one on that
